CHAPTER XV

It is one thing to catch the unfortunate understandings of a crime matter, and quite another thing to catch the matter itself.

Senora Angela Tafesa sobbed brokenheartedly before the federal judge, admitting that she earned about $10 a day transporting crates across the line for a man named "Tommy".

"Tommy" she testified that she had met him in the streets of the city and that he had offered her a job.

"I was a little girl then," she testified, "and I was very poor. I was looking for a way to make money."

to have thought it all out, Pablo!

"Hah! Don't talk to me like that, Pablo! You come with them from Honolulu!"

Betty Mary well understood. She hoped he couldn't detect how she felt. Maybe he really was as keen-witted as he said he was. But she shifted on.

"No, no, I'm on the other end so to speak. See?"

"Ah, ah, senorita. Well, well, be big like there, then. Handling $10 like that, I bet you know your way over there?"

"Goodness, will there be 30? I understood only—well, about 15 or 20 maybe, Pablo. But I have not discussed it in detail with Luis yet."

"Hah! May come with hundred! He have the big plan, senorita! He do talk much till ready you see?"

"Me, Pablo, I talk with others, and learn everything. You tell me, take care feeding them too. I send out the grocery, the cake, the bread, every day I go to Don Luis' ranch where they wait. You see?"

"I have to know, me, Pablo!"

"Pablo, Mary drifted away soon after that. In truth, she was highly elated but she had to keep a sober careless pose, lest she appear too eager. She added some of her own 'information' of her own, speaking casually, and bade him 'buenas noches'."

She realized that in fat, garrulous, good-natured Pablo, cashier-manager of the Place of the Sleeping Monk, she had a better friend than she had in the United States.

TIME COMING WHEN ORDER IS "FORWARD"

Morrison States Britain Must Think In Long- Term Policies

LONDON, June 25.—Britain, preparing to defend herself against possible invasion, was told yesterday that the time is coming when the order will be changed from "hold fast" to "forward."

Herbert Morrison, minister of supply, told the House of Commons that the time is coming when the order will be changed from "hold fast" to "forward."

GET WAR SUPPLIES

He declared the Empire and United States are pouring forth war materials in a way that Britain's arsenal of war.

Munitions orders totalling about $2,500,000 have been placed in Canada during the last three weeks.

During a broadcast last night Mr. Morrison again alluded to Canadian assistance. He said Canada had sent ships and explosives plants and a firm manufacturing in production, as well as several factories delivering Herculite and other machines.

He also has been able to draw upon Canada's stocks of weapons and munitions in most special needs.

He said in the broadcast that Britain is drawing today and will draw increasingly with every week and month upon the world-wide resources and raw materials of the Empire and the United States.

The House of Commons held a secret session to consider Mr. Morrison's report.

HOME DEFENSE PLANS

In the home defence, neutral observers declared that Britain's efforts to put together a trained force of 1,000,000 men to meet possible invasion was long forward satisfaction. This is the plan: A first-line defensive force of 500,000, well-trained and well equipped, including Empire units. A citizen-army of 500,000 for the second line. A final reserve of local defence volunteers—citizens, organized mainly to combat parachute troops.

BRIG. BROWNE DEPUTY CHIEF GENERAL STAFF

OTTAWA, June 25.—Brig. B. W. Browne has been appointed deputy chief of the general staff at national defence headquarters, headquarters here, Acting Defence Minister C. G. Powers announced last night.

Appointment of Brig. G. G. Aglin as deputy chief commanding military district No. 7 at Saint John, was announced at the same time.

Appointment of a deputy chief of staff will add to the strength of national defence headquarters where the main burden of the organization's equipment of Canada's expanding military forces falls. Brig. Browne will serve as deputy chief of the general staff.

The new deputy chief was recently officer commanding military district No. 10, Winnipeg, and prior to that served as assistant adjutant and quartermaster general in military district No. 4, Montreal, and No. 1, London.

Novia Scotia Town Establishes Record For Enlistments

British United Press Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin STEWART, N.S., June 25.—This Nova Scotia town has set what is believed to be a record for enlistments for the present war. Of its total population of 700, the town has sent 44 men into the armed forces. Eight of these already are overseas.

Most of the men who enlisted left town which provided better pay than they are receiving in the army.

FORD BOYCOTT HELD AGAINST CANADA'S GOOD

Senator Declares Move Would Hurt Employees, Shareholders

OTTAWA, June 25.—A boycott of Ford motor products would be against the interests of the Canadian public holding a majority of the stock of the Ford Motor Company of Canada, senator J. J. Donnelly (Cons. Ont.) declared in the Senate yesterday.

The upper house discussed a question by Senator F. B. Black (Cons. New Brunswick) as to whether the government would cancel contracts with Ford and prohibit Ford sales in Canada because Henry Ford had refused to make aircraft engines for Great Britain.

There are no better Canadians than those at the head of the Ford Company of Canada and those employed by that company, said Senator Arthur Meighen, Conservative leader.

Senator Donnelly said that the Ford Company of Canada was doing its utmost to aid the Canadian war effort, and that any action against the company as suggested would hurt not only Canadian shareholders, but also employees in Canada, as well as Ford dealers and their employees across Canada.

Senator Black agreed, but said that most Canadians nevertheless would feel a strong resentment against Henry Ford for his actions.

Purchase Of Cars For Winnipeg Halts

WINNIPEG, June 25.—Mayor John Queen yesterday halted the purchase of two Ford cars which had been authorized by Winnipeg city council Monday. The mayor's action followed the reported refusal of Henry Ford to manufacture airplane engines for Britain.

"As far as I'm concerned Winnipeg is buying no more Ford cars," the mayor said as he instructed heads of two civic departments not to make the purchase.

The mayor lacks authority to cancel the orders and the matter will be reconsidered by the council.

France, Crushed To Earth Before, Has Risen Again

France has been smashed in other great defeats—yet tried to rise again to power. The day Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini met to decide France's fate was the 12th anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo, the battle that spelled the final downfall of another master of Europe—Napoleon Bonaparte. Picturing above depicts duxious charge of Napoleon's cavalry into a ravine.

Urges U.S. Haven For Refugee Children

Rep. Sol. Hunsford (New York, Dem.) yesterday urged the U.S. House Foreign Affairs committee, and J. Roland Robinson, member of the British parliament, discuss Robinson's plan for sending to the United States some of the English children between the ages of five and 16 years for the duration of the war. Millions of children, according to Robinson, should be removed from what he considered to be a "fight to the death" (quoted by the House) to the United States and Canada.

Looking Them Over

By Jack Kelly
Says Sisler
It's Logical
Plenty Ducks

CLAIMING that the ballplayer who cleans the bases rates a higher batting average than one who barely bats out a punt, George H. Sisler, former batting star, suggests in an article in Collier's an entirely new system of rating offensive play which would give the batter credit for everything he accomplished.

"The start of a scoring system of this kind," he writes, "must be from the highest standard. Under my system, a home run with the bases filled is perfection. Since this is a perfect performance, all other offensive actions by a batter are relative to this."

"A base on balls with nobody on is actually worth the same as a single with nobody on. A single plus a steal of second is as important as a two-base hit. A single plus a steal of second and third is worth as much as a triple with nobody on. With men on second and third, a single scoring both is worth more than a single scoring neither. In short, a batter's true worth is dependent not only on the length of his hits and his speed of foot but on the number of bases he has advanced his teammates."

"This system of rating is based on the fact that getting to first base is the most important thing of all. If the batter doesn't get to first base is no chance for a rally and no chance to score a run. The old edge still holds; you can't steal first base. After long investigation I have found that the following ratings are most equitable:

"I have rated first base 2 points, first to second by point second to third 1 point, third to home 1½ points. This may sound complicated but it really is very simple. A batter hitting a home run with the bases loaded would score 12 points made up as follows: he gets a compensation for the bases he scores, 5 points; he scores a run from third, 1½ points; he scores a man from second, 2½ points; he scores a man from first, 1½ points plus 1½ points. Total, 12 points.

"That brings us to percentages. If a batter is up four times in a game and he makes as a batter and base runner, 3 points a hit first time, 4 his second, 5 his third and six his fourth, he would have accumulated 12 points. Now, if he had a home run with the bases filled each time his total points would be 48. Therefore the total number of points he would have accumulated by a perfect performance divided into the number of points he actually made would give his offensive rating or efficiency average."

"It sounds very logical, Mr. Sisler, but heaven forbid that I ever have to figure out averages under your system. The present one is a tough enough for most sport writers."

Lelivelt Setting Record

JACK LELIVELT, signed to a new contract to manage the Seattle Rainiers through the 1941 and 1942 seasons, will set a new record if he fulfills the conditions of the new document, just as he will if he finishes out his three-year stint this season.

Never in the history of Seattle baseball, Coast League veterans, that is, has a hired hand run the club for full seasons. Never has a manager of any kind lasted the job five full seasons.

Wade Lelivelt, based the old Indians from early in the 1920 season through 1927, but he was part owner of the club. Walter (Dutch) Rueschman managed the club three seasons, in 1928, '29 and '30, but he didn't take charge his first year until two weeks after the season started.

Other skipper—Ernie Johnson, George Burns, Spencer Abbott, Harry Wolverton, Jimmy Johnston, Johnny Bassler, Clyde Warren, Duke Kenworthy, Wild Bill Clymer, Jack Adams, Charlie Mullen, Walt McCrindle—lasted varying periods but never three seasons.

Duck Prospects Are Good

SUMMARIZED analysis of facts from meteorological stations, government authorities and Ducks Unlimited projects and previous years, that the 1940 duck crop is on the way, weather conditions are generally good, more ducks are nesting, plumage of eggs is improved and early birds are on the water. Prospects are good, substantial increase in production this year. There is plenty of surface water in Alberta and vicinity of ducks. There apparently is a big increase in Pintails. They produce and enough has been seen in the past few years. Pintails are also in great numbers. Mallards, Goldeneyes, also normal. In Alberta, ducks peaked in the early spring grass prairie waters. More ducks per square mile around Ducks Unlimited project near Hanna, than anywhere else.

Here's a complete summary of the duck situation:

1. Thirty percent more breeding stock came north during the spring. Many more canvasbacks, pintails away up.
2. Breeding conditions were good to excellent in 75 percent of the duck range.
3. Hatch is said to be no bigger than for many years.
4. Seven out of every 10 ducklings hatched will die before leaving the nest.
5. Ducks Unlimited concentrating to reduce this loss by salvaging, predator control, water restoration.
6. 10,000 canvasbacks and many big geese—mostly on the breeding range to stimulate and increase successful duck crops.

HOWARD WINS DISTRICTS GOLF TITLE

Believe It Or Not — By Robt. Ripley

Stan Howard, victor in the 1940 championship of Alberta's thousands of golfers who play on the sand-green courses of the smaller cities and towns. He won that honor yesterday afternoon here at the Highlands Club when he defeated George Wood of Stettler two up on the last hole of the 36-hole final.

Although intermittent showers soaked the course throughout the day, the finalists played steadily on and turned in a very creditable brand of golf. Howard was five over par for the morning round and seven over on the afternoon round.

In the consolation final Allan Coates of Huphew defeated Morris Beatty of Red Deer and three. Coates advanced into the final by defeating Ken Coates of Vermilion three and two. Beatty advanced to the final by defeating Frank Mulholland of Medicine Hat, former district champion, four and three.

The two-day tourney for the champions of the eight county districts the province has been divided into was wound up last night with a dinner at the Highlands Club at which the competitors were the guests of honor. Earl Pinch, president of the Highlands Club, presided as toastmaster.

Prizes and trophies were presented to the winners on behalf of the Calgary Herald by George MacPhail. In making the awards, Mr. MacPhail complimented the competitors on the very fine calibre of golf they displayed over a course which he generally rated as very difficult.

A. W. Mathews spoke briefly on behalf of the Alberta Golf Association and outlined proposals that he has had under consideration for assisting county golf clubs.

George Wood spoke on behalf of the competitors and extended their thanks for the entertainment and courtesies that had been extended to them during their two days in Edmonton.

South Side Club Stages Swim Meet
The South Side Swimming Club is holding its first meet tonight at the pool in Queen Elizabeth Park, and in the neighbourhood of 150 swimmers are expected to take part in the various events.

Amongst other outstanding performers there will be George Vail, the holder of the western mile record, and Bruce McNamee, a 100-yard sprinter. A special event will be a junior 100-yard race between Earl Edwards, Norman and Alma Ware and Bill Mitchell will do some of his best work.

JUST A GAMBLE
An honest soul, MacPhail admits that the purchase of Joe Stelmick was a gamble.

"If Joe has a pretty good year and he has a bad year, and who knows what he'll do then I made a sucker move. But I've been fooled before, so it won't be anything new."

The Brooklyn boy thinks any legislation against the "bean ball" is ridiculous.

"Just tell me," he said, "how any power on earth is going to be able to decide when a pitcher deliberately throws a ball at a batter. The pitcher can always say it slipped, and when he is going to prove him a liar."

By the time the seventh race came around MacPhail was due, causing much of the crowd to cheer. But he had been out for some time, and he was not in the mood to play. A long time, in fact.

Tarox Wins Pot
LARRY LIVERPOOL, 60, of Stettler, has won the first prize in the championship campaign, easily outpacing Bud Micaul of Brockton, Mass., last night in a 10-round bout. Yates weighed 174, Micaul 169.

IT'S DANGEROUS
"They'll kill baseball," he said, if they go and play more than seven or eight night games at home. That gives you one night a week during the really hot summer time and that's enough. Let's let them play two night games a week and let them play themselves out on the road. I don't think they will ever again be in the National League. I don't think they will ever be required to succeed or do any of the things of night games and there will be a union."

Homers Fly Fast
In the first of the morning sessions, Gus Doornik, of the South Edmonton Club won the first prize. The race was won from University, by the club and the first prize was a home run. South Side Sports Meet Opens Saturday

HORSE RACES, ATHLETICS TO BE FEATURES

Annual Celebration Will Be Extended to Two Days This Year

South Edmonton's big annual celebration on Dominion Day, has this year been expanded into a two-day affair, with events scheduled for both Saturday, June 28 and Sunday, July 1, at the South Side Athletic grounds.

Under the auspices of the South Side Businessmen's Association, track and field athletics with outstanding performers from all parts of the province participating in horse racing will be banner attractions. In addition street carvasses and street dancing on both Saturday and Monday nights will be staged.

Despite the grim business of the war, which is in some shape or form engaging the attention of every citizen, the annual event will lack nothing in the way of entertainment to suit the taste of all, both old and young.

6TH ANNUAL MEET

The program this year marks the sixth annual commemoration of the day people who live on the south side of the river and the 23rd since the amalgamation of Edmonton and Edmonton, in 1911.

James Smith popular manager of the sports, will announce the program and state that the celebration this year, both from the standpoint of entertainment and attendance, will likely exceed all expectations.

A full program of grandstand attractions will be an added feature this year on Dominion Day, which will be in charge of Alex Cameron, J. A. Young, president of the South Side Business Men's Association, who is active in the preparation of the program, announced that His Worship Mayor Fry will officially open the program on Dominion Day with an address before the grandstand at 2:30 p.m.

BETTER HORSES

Separation of the program to two days is undertaken in order that the better quality horses may be secured for the racing program. Manager Smith explains.

Starting at 2:30 each afternoon there will be a seven-race program on each of the two days, with post-race betting.

Entries for the races have not yet been completed but it is predicted that owners of several outstanding western Canada thoroughbreds will contend during the meet.

While the horse racing is an attraction all of its own the athletic competitions for men, women and juniors, under the direction of A. R. Lawrence, will also prove a magnet to numerous citizens. Ray Foster and E. Williams are assisting Mr. Lawrence with the track and field events.

The horse racing is being conducted under the auspices of the South Side Sports and Athletic Association, an incorporated body.

SOLDIERS COMPETE

The street dancing and carnival events will be staged at the corner of Whyte Avenue and 10th Street on the evenings of both days.

The track at the South Side Athletic grounds is considered one of the finest in the country and given good weather some of the most exciting racing witnessed here for a long time should be provided.

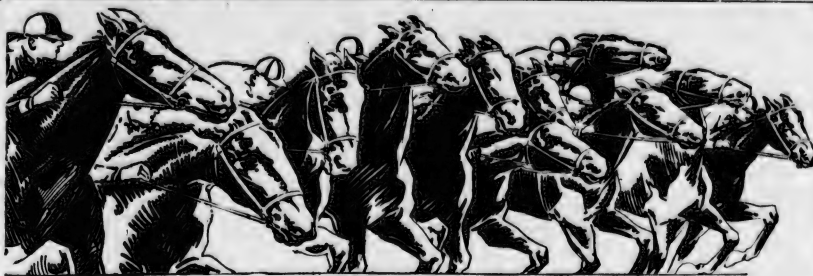

The fact that Canada is at war will be reflected during its year.

OTTAWA WAITS FOR CHANGES IN MINISTERS

OTTAWA, June 28.—For three days Ottawa has been kept up with the expectation Prime Minister Mackenzie King would announce reorganization of his cabinet. Each day the galleries of the Commons have been filled at the three o'clock opening, but no announcement has been made.

It was thought last night the Prime Minister might announce the cabinet changes during the long week-end when the House will not be in session. In any event the close attention Finance Minister Balcanal is taking in the budget debate appeared to indicate that he is not planning to change over to the defence department until the budget debate is concluded.

Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada, has often been mentioned as likely to become Labor Minister in the reorganized cabinet, but word yesterday was that Mr. Moore could be better served Canada and particularly the Labor movement by remaining in the position he presently occupies.

Italians Arrested In Police Raids At Niagara Falls, Ont.

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., June 28.—Led by Corp. J. M. Bells of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, 40 police officers raided the homes of a number of Italians here Wednesday night and seized a quantity of guns, subversive literature and United States currency. A number of arrests were effected. Those arrested were removed to an undisclosed destination.

Birthday celebrations locally by the presence of competitors in uniform in the athletic competitions from various of the military units stationed in Edmonton.

Despite the seriousness of the world situation Edmontonians will demonstrate their love of sport and loyalty to their city by a generous patronage of the program at the South Side Saturday and Monday.

KING WATCHES FLIERS RETURN FROM BATTLES

LONDON, June 28.—The King yesterday saw pilots landing after battles with enemy aircraft, and others taking off for flights over enemy territory, in the course of a tour of four Royal Air Force fighter command stations near London.

While he was talking to pilots at one station who shortly before had been engaged in an air battle, two other planes of the squadron landed. He saw one machine which the pilot brought home riddled with bullets.

At another station the King talked to pilots of a squadron about in his own off, said "Good luck to you," and then watched them soar into the sky to fly over enemy territory.

He departed 13 officers and two sergeant pilots on the terms of their airport.

Municipality Needs Fair Revenue Share Duggan Tells Meet

Recommendation that a committee be established to survey and recommend adjustments between the province and municipalities so that a more equitable relationship can be established in the field of public revenue, was made by D. M. Duggan, M.L.A., addressing delegates to the annual convention of the Union of Alberta Municipalities in session at the Macdonald hotel Friday.

Mr. Duggan held that in view of the recommendations of the Rowell-Sirois commission, Dominion-provincial relations it was imperative that re-adjustments between taxing bodies be made immediately.

He was of the opinion that problems associated with Canada's war effort should not preclude adjustments between the Dominion and province, and between the province and municipalities.

LAND REVIEW

Mr. Duggan reviewing at length the financial position of Alberta municipalities, said the main source of revenue was taxation on land, a basis of taxation available to municipalities if they were to survive. Devolution of the land tax field by the provincial government was demonstrated by the speaker who suggested that the time had arrived

MOVE IS MADE TO MODERNIZE FARM HOUSES

Appointment of Mrs. Hazel Fee of Vermilion as head of the Modern Home division of the provincial agriculture department was announced yesterday by Mr. D. B. Mullen, minister of agriculture. She has commenced her duties.

Institution of this division of the department is expected to bring about co-operation of rural people in the installation of modern conveniences in and out of their homes and thereby eliminate as much as possible the hardship and financial attendant upon rural life.

Mrs. Fee is widely known as a social worker in the Vermilion area, and Mr. Mullen declared, was admirably fitted for the work she is now to carry on.

In making his announcement, Mr. Mullen pointed out that farmers have computed that, although nearly 60 per cent of the entire Alberta production comes from farms, yet only one farm home out of 50 has electric light.

He said that in the kitchen, one out of 47 has water piped to a bathroom and one out of 47 has a bathroom.

"After careful consideration, the Alberta government has decided to assist the farmers to help themselves in the modernizing of their homes, by helping them to obtain their own modern farm home associations throughout the province," declared Mr. Mullen. "This service, said Mr. Mullen, would be known as The Modern Home Division. Mrs. Fee's headquarters are at the legislative building."

Col. J. K. Cornwall—"Peace River Jim"—declared Mr. Mullen's trip in the Peace River district.

1915 FLOODS RECALLED TODAY: $1,000,000 LOSS

Edmontonians can look forward to a very pleasant week-end if the weather behaves according to Friday's forecast of "fair and a little higher temperatures." After four days of very sultry weather, citizens awake Friday in find Old Sol shining forth in all his glory from a clear sky.

Twenty-five years ago today the Saskatchewan river overflowed his banks. Citizens in Donald River suffered an estimated loss of $1,000,000 as the waters swept away 50 small houses and inundated 700 other residences.

People in the Low Level bridge in 1915 were not so lucky. The great was the flood that two trains of ballast had to be run out to the Low Level bridge to steady it against the strain.

Thursday's high temperature was recorded at 81 above, while the low was 48 above. The rains measured 20 inches bringing the four-day total to an inch and a half.

In Edmonton at 8:30 a.m. the temperature was 50 above, and the barometric reading was 27.1 steady.

In the near north all points were clear Friday morning, with a general west breeze blowing. Showers in the Spirit River district yesterday.

Through The Mill

"Row over the side" would have been the most appropriate title for Friday morning's jar of judicial justice at the police station. A woman was charged with assaulting the little girl of a neighbor by twisting her arm at the neck. The younger cousin, who was in danger of being made a giggling exhibit by appearing in the witness box with her arm tightly bound in a sling. She had gone to rescue her brother, who was in danger of being made a giggling exhibit by appearing in the witness box with her arm tightly bound in a sling. She had gone to rescue her brother, who was in danger of being made a giggling exhibit by appearing in the witness box with her arm tightly bound in a sling.

The accused woman admitted grabbing the little girl but explained that it was to remove a large sized stick the latter had clutched in her hand.

Then, just to complicate matters, several of the neighbors testified they had seen the alleged victim of the assault enjoying a game of ball and swinging a bat with great gusto two days after her arm was alleged to have been broken. The court looked mystified and more than a little annoyed. He recalled the little girl, told her all about the business of telling lies and the truth, but the little lady stuck right to her story. Then the case dismissed by the court.

SOME OF PEACE RIVER CROP IS IN SHOT BLADE

Crops in the Peace River territory are in good condition with some grain in the shot blade, according to the crop report of the Northern Alberta Railways for the week previous to June 28, issued Friday on authority of J. M. MacArthur, general manager.

Moisture conditions at Peace River are fairly good but general rain would be beneficial. Some wheat is in shot blade. At present, one heavy shower fell last week.

Wheat and oats are about 10 inches high. Moisture conditions are fairly good.

At Beaveridge, weather has been warmer with an hour's light rain. Little damage has been reported from wire worms. Wheat is 10 inches high, with oats and barley six inches high. Some wheat is in the shot blade. Barley is 10 inches high.

Wheat is eight inches high at Wembley and oats five inches. About 10 per cent of the wheat is in shot blade.

Somewhat similar reports have been received from other sections of the Peace River area.

ROWELL-SIROIS REPORT NEEDS ATTENTION NOW

Many questions in the Rowell-Sirois report on Dominion-provincial relations deserve immediate attention, and if given such attention would further Canada's war effort, J. A. Brownlee, K.C., Edmonton barrister, told delegates to the annual convention of the Union of Alberta Municipalities Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Brownlee quoted extensively from the report, and added that while Canada's war effort demanded the nation's full effort, attention should be paid to some of the recommendations of the report as they affected municipalities, as the implementation of each would materially assist in that effort.

The convention passed a resolution asking the provincial government to take responsibility for construction and maintenance of highways through towns.
